Victoria is one of Australia’s most successful regional economies. Victoria has a blend of economic strength, dynamism and lifestyle that is envied around the world. Its infrastructure, in a destination system, is renowned; it provides for international investors.

Invest Victoria, the State Government’s investment promotion agency, provides free confidential services and professional advice to international investors to assist them explore business opportunities, build a local business to international investors. It provides a single entry point for all new international investors.

It provides a single entry point for all new international investors.

While Victoria represents only three per cent of Australia’s land mass, it accounts for close to a quarter of Australia’s economic activity. The strength of its national economy, by Australia’s steadily progressing national economy, is underpinned by Victoria’s infrastructure and its world-class workforce, a renowned education system, supportive government and world-class infrastructure mean Victoria is a great place to invest.

The strength of its national economy, by Australia’s steadily progressing national economy, is underpinned by Victoria’s infrastructure and its world-class workforce, a renowned education system, supportive government and world-class infrastructure mean Victoria is a great place to invest.

Invest Victoria, the State Government’s investment promotion agency, provides free confidential services and professional advice to international investors to assist them explore business opportunities, build a local business to international investors.

It provides a single entry point for all new international investors.

Victoria is one of Australia’s most successful regional economies. Victoria has a blend of economic strength, dynamism and lifestyle that is envied around the world. Its infrastructure, in a destination system, is renowned; it provides for international investors.

Invest Victoria, the State Government’s investment promotion agency, provides free confidential services and professional advice to international investors to assist them explore business opportunities, build a local business to international investors. It provides a single entry point for all new international investors.